

BIGGEST VAUDEVILLE HIT

HOWARD and HOWARD, PRESENTING "THE PORTER AND THE SALESMAN," AT THE ORPHEUM TONIGHT ONE BIG LAUGH.

"ERMINIE," TUNEFUL OPERA

The tuneful opera to be given by the local High School Alumnists in the Ogden Theater, Friday and Saturday, December 2 and 3, is perhaps the most eagerly anticipated event of the season, both socially and musically. The proceeds of the opera are to be used for the local high school library.

Remarkable progress has been made during the last two weeks and the entire music has been gone over by principals and chorus. The voices in the chorus are better than most road companies carry and the chorus generally is excellently balanced.

The music of the opera is of more than ordinary composition and full of melody and color. The solos and choruses are most tuneful, the melodies are of that quality that make one want to whistle or hum when first heard.

The stage work is coming along nicely, and is full of action and striking pictures.

The principal roles are ably handled by the following cast: Ravannes, Moroni Olson; Cadeaux, T. Earl Pardoe; Erminie, Maud Belnap; Eugene, David Reese; Charles, Minnie Brown; Marie, Frances Van Buskirk; Princess, Florence Stevens; Javotte, Clara Peterson; Marquis, Walter Stevens; Chevalier, Jack Reeve; Simon, Charles Woods; Dr. D. W. Murphy.

The play deals with the adventures of two robbers, Ravannes and Cadeaux, and sparkles with action and comedy. A great effort is being made to make this opera the very best that has been presented by this very popular organization.

AN UNUSUAL
CASE OF FORGERY

Charged with forging a Santa Fe superintendent's name by telegraph, C. F. Mullen, a Southern Pacific operator at Lucien, has been pleaded guilty to arrest by Detective T. O'Leary and will be taken to Trinidad, Colo., to face trial for his unusual crime.

Mullen was a former employee of the Santa Fe railroad and, it is alleged, that in order to secure transportation from Trinidad to Salt Lake City, he sent a message over the wire to the general offices, asking that a pass be sent to himself. This telegram was ostensibly sent by the superintendent of the division on which he was working. In compliance with the message, transportation was sent to Mullen and he resigned his position and left Trinidad.

This offense is supposed to have taken place in September and it was not until several weeks later that it was learned by the railroad officials that the telegram was a fake.

It is said that Mullen will be prosecuted just as vigorously for his offense as though the forgery had been committed in the usual manner and for the purpose of obtaining money instead of transportation.

RALLY DAY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

A program for "Rally Day and Harvest Home" has been prepared under the supervision of Mrs. J. B. McCracken, assistant superintendent of the Sunday school. A cordial invitation is extended to the parents of the children to attend this rally service. The hour of service has been placed at 10:30, so that all may have an opportunity to attend. The following program will be presented, though subject to several minor changes:

CHORISTERS
TRAINING CLASS

Friday evening the Weber academy choristers training class was organized, and active work began. The membership includes fifty selected young men, who possess the qualifications of musicians and chorists.

Sessions will be held Tuesday and Friday evenings of each week, during the school year, from 7 until 9:30. The course will include two years and includes sight singing, harmony, analysis, history of music, English and practical conducting.

Miss Ivy Clegham of the Weber Academy faculty, will teach the English and Prof. Jos. Ballantyne has been engaged to give all other subjects.

Those familiar with the object of the organization of this training class predict that it will do more to promote the musical growth of the community than any other one factor.

The fifty young men taking the work are delighted with the opportunity for culture and education which the class will provide and are intensely enthusiastic over the prospective results.

At the class of last evening's session Prof. Ballantyne said: "I shall love the work of teaching these young men because of their sincerity of purpose, and the great good which will be the logical result of this training."

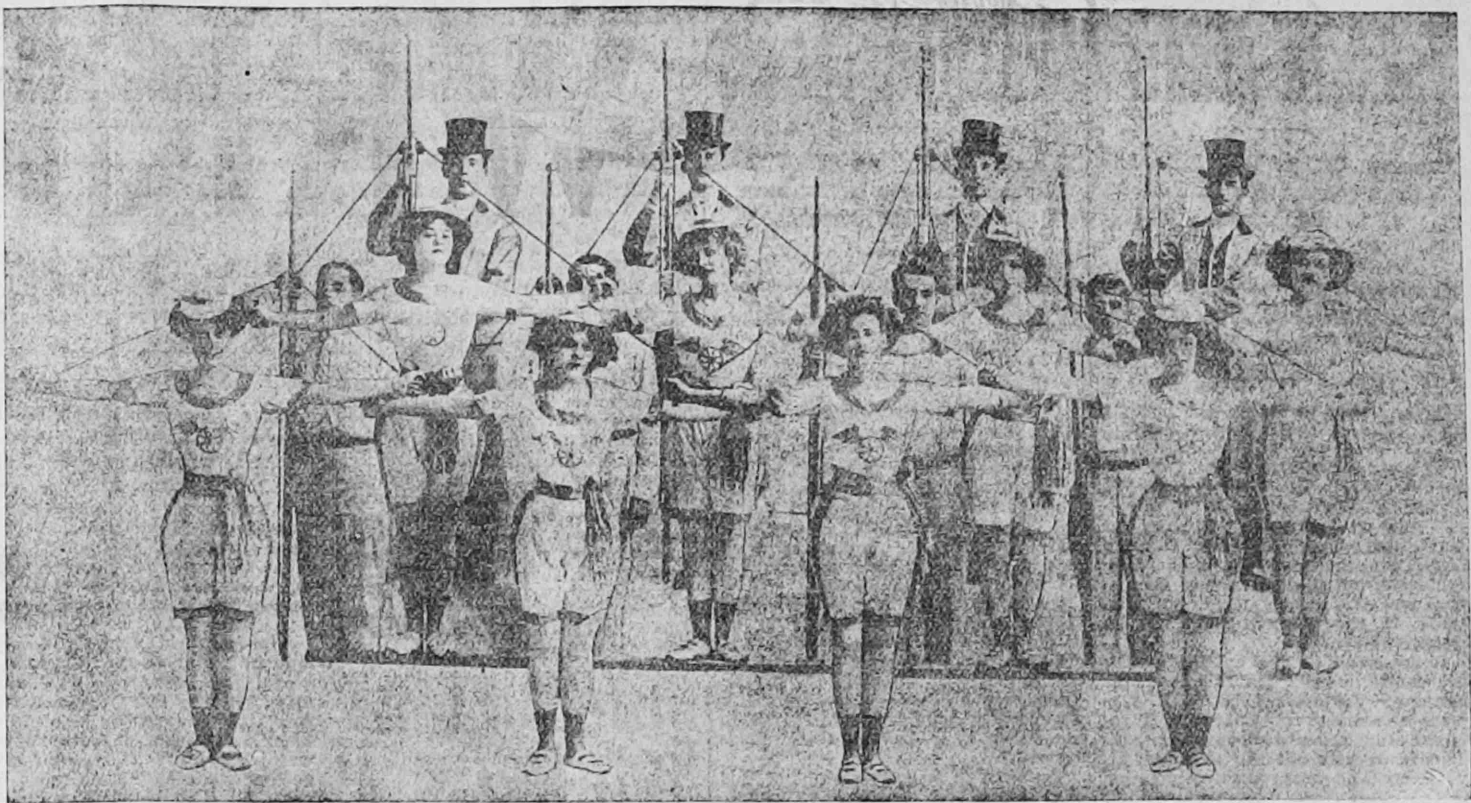

ENVOYS OF IRISH
LANGUAGE LEAGUE

New York, Nov. 12.—Fionan Maccolum and the Rev. Michael O'Flanagan, official envoys sent by the Gaelic Language league of Ireland to America to arouse interest in the revival of the old Gaelic language and literature, have opened headquarters in New York and are preparing an active propaganda. The two delegates will remain in this country for about nine months and will visit all the principal Irish centers. In each city, mass meetings will be held and branch societies for carrying on the work of the league will be organized.

There is no connection between the Gaelic league and any of the political movements in Ireland. With the league, however, is associated a movement for the revival of the Irish industries. Its platform urges clean living and temperance, both physically and morally, and the betterment of the social conditions of the people generally. In Ireland the movement has received the approval and co-operation of leading men politically and intellectually, clergy and teachers. Gaelic is now taught in over 3,000 schools.

"Our work here," said the preliminary announcement by Mr. Maccolum, "will be to explain what the Gaelic Language is doing in Ireland for the revival of the old traditional language of the Irish people and for the restoration of the traditional civilization and customs of the country, especially in the way of music, literature, songs, dances and games."

"There is a widespread interest in the Gaelic movement in the United States, but so far the work here has not been definitely organized. I should say there are 100,000 speakers of Irish in New York alone. The Gaelic league aims at the intellectual independence of Ireland. It aims at sustaining Irish nationality in the natural order—that is, preserving all the traditions, characteristics, customs and ideas which distinguish one nation from another. We in Ireland do not believe in cosmopolitanism; we hold every nation should work out its own destiny."

ATHLETIC GIRLS IN
"THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY"

With a dozen really new novelty numbers, another score of jingling musical hits and more genuine comedy than is to be found in half a dozen so-called musical successes, Mort H. Singer's "The Goddess of Liberty," with Joseph E. Howard, America's most popular star, is easily and without question the one big musical hit of the season to be offered locally. "The Goddess of Liberty" will be at the

OGDEN THEATER TONIGHT

A SONNET BY MISS MALONE

Among the many beautiful thoughts suggested to St. Joseph's parishioners during the week of the mission, perhaps none has found more fitting expression than the following sonnet by Miss Genevieve Malone of Sacred Heart Academy.

"Beneath the Mission Cross.

'Tis dusk; the golden glimmering light of day

Through shadows is fast fading from man's sight.

The church is dark, but for the flickering light of the cross.

That brightly radiates its crimson ray

And brightens as 'twould silent homage pay.

The shroud and cross that fervent love invite.

Its soft glow lingers through the dreary night.

And gleams as bright through morning mists all gray.

Shall we in coldness crucify again

That loving God and deeper pierce the heart

That turns to save from sin each erring one?

Or, in repentance, Magdalene-like restrain

Temptation's grasping arms and love impart

Unto that cross whence God will say

"Well done!"

—GENEVEE MALONE, '12.

PULLED HAIR IN JEALOUS RIVALRY

May Smith and Mrs. Dan Lindsey, the two women who engaged in a hair-pulling altercation on Twenty-fourth street Friday night, were arraigned in the police court yesterday and charged with disturbing the peace. A suspended sentence of twenty days was meted out to Mrs. Lindsey, who appeared to be the aggressor in the fiasco, and the other woman was allowed to go.

The trouble between the two women is one of long standing and has been aired before in police court. Mrs. Lindsey is said to be separated from her husband, yet is determined to retain her erstwhile claim to his affections. She considers the Smith woman a rival and a number of quarrels and fist encounters have taken place when the women have been unfortunate enough to meet.

Judge J. D. Murphy gave both women warning not to engage in any further altercations and he placed the suspended sentence on the more aggressive of the two as a further precaution that she start no trouble in the future.

TO DRIVE SALOONS
FROM CHICAGO

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Four thousand petition circulators have been organized secretly in a new campaign to drive saloons from Chicago. The first sheets of the petition were returned to headquarters yesterday. Swaps of this move became known last night.

It was decided upon at a meeting of the local option committee of the Anti-Saloon league, having in hand the project to bring the proposition before voters of the city at the spring election April 4, next.

Superintendent James K. Shields, of the Anti-Saloon league made the claim last night that the "dry" would control both branches of the legislature in the session of the general assembly beginning next January. He based his claims upon a tabulation of the lawmakers elect, classified according to their pledges upon two possibilities of legislation—county local option and repeal of the present local option law.

"The anti-saloon forces in the house at Springfield," said Mr. Shields, "will be much stronger than two years ago, when the majority against us was from two to five. We have gained 15 or 16 representatives and have lost five or six, making our net gain about ten and assuring us control of the house on local option bills. The senate already was with us and will remain so."

"We will present a county option bill and believe we have the votes to pass it in both branches of the legislature."

MEMBER OF ARCTIC
EXPEDITION KILLS SELF

Seattle, Nov. 12.—John Lindquist, aged 49, a member of the Greely relief expedition into the Arctic region, committed suicide by drinking poison in a local hotel. He was in ill health and was without funds. Papers found among his effects show that he was a member of a Knights of Pythias lodge at San Antonio, Texas.

COMPLETION OF CUTOFF WORK

Next week will witness the completion of a half million dollars' worth of improvement work during the present season on the Ogden-Lacien cut-off. The entire west side of the trestle has been raised from two and a half to five feet and the double-tracking extended so that there is now seven miles of it.

Work, started early in the spring, has continued throughout the summer and fall and many workmen have been kept busily engaged during all this time. Both the trestle and fill has been raised so that the track is now practically above the storm line and the wash of waves will no longer delay traffic.

While it is likely that more improvement work will be done next summer, there are no other improvements planned at this time and there are believed to be none that are now necessary, unless it be the extension of the double track. With seven miles of continuous double track on the west side of the cut-off, traffic on the Southern Pacific will be greatly facilitated and some time will be clipped from the schedules of the freight service.

IN POLICE COURT

Mabel Harris, a colored woman, was given a suspended sentence of 20 days in police court yesterday and instructed to leave the city at once or prepare to serve the sentence. The woman was arrested last night on a charge of vagrancy.

John Whalen and A. Bohn pleaded guilty to the charge of being unlawfully drunk and were fined $5 each.

Leonard Taylor, charged with vagrancy, was given a straight sentence of ten days on the chain gang.

ARKANSAS HOT SPRINGS BOOSTED

Washington, Nov. 12.—The past fiscal year was a banner year for the Hot Springs reservation, Arkansas, according to Superintendent Myers, who has presented his annual report to the secretary of the interior.

Mr. Myers calls particular attention to the elimination of what he says was a "most glaring evil," in the form of doctor or hotel drumming, which formerly kept people away. The inauguration of a method of train inspection, Mr. Myers says, has resulted in many people coming from all sections of the country "who had heretofore remained away because of this nuisance."

"It is generally conceded that the waters are now more scientifically administered than ever before," says the superintendent. "After one year's observation of many cures, some of which are almost marvelous," he continues, "I am convinced that the government has no asset nearly so valuable to mankind as these springs."

The total number of bathers given during the year, the report says, was 92,669, of which 716,963 were paid; 200,048 free and 5,658 complimentary. The practice of giving complimentary baths was stopped in February of this year.

ACCIDENT IN MINE
CAUSES A DEATH

Helena, Mont., Nov. 12.—A report has just reached Helena of an accident in the Radersburg Rena mine at Radersburg, 35 miles from here, in which one miner, Bert Reardon, lost his life and another, Eugene Barr, was probably fatally injured. The men went into the mine after a blast and were overcome by gas. The state mine inspector has been notified.

FEELING THE PUBLIC PULSE

J. P. Cummins, traveling advertising agent—a new official designation on the Union Pacific—is in Ogden, setting in touch with local conditions and inquiring as to how the great railroad might better serve its patrons.

Mr. Cummins is a young man with a responsibility usually accorded older heads, but he seems equal to the task and is making an excellent impression on his first trip over the road. He is under Garrit Ford, the general passenger traffic manager who, soon after succeeding E. L. Lomax, was given the larger duties described by his latest title.

The Union Pacific, in its passenger department, evidently is receiving a hypodermic injection of new life.

OFFICERS ELECTED IN CHURCH MEETING

Salt Lake, Nov. 12.—The Congressional association meeting on Friday, which was the second of the two days' session, was well attended, happy and profitable. The reports from the different points throughout the state showed a decided improvement over last year.

The following officers and committees were elected to serve for the ensuing year: Moderator, Rev. Frank G. Brainerd; home missionary committee, D. E. P. Mills, C. W. Longnecker and Edward Merrill; committee on education, J. Challen Smith and F. G. Brainerd; program committee, the moderator, the registrar and G. W. Longnecker; committee on resolutions, P. A. Simplin, A. J. Graham and Miss Giles; public committee, S. H. Goodwin, P. A. Simplin and E. I. Goshen.

The next session will be held in Park City, October 26-27, 1911.

SENATOR FLINT
MAKES COMMENT

New York, Nov. 12.—United States Senator Frank P. Flint of California, who will retire in March to resume his law practice, is in New York on his return from a long foreign trip. He expressed no surprise at the result of the election, saying:

"It was due in part to public criticism of certain men of our party."

Senator Flint said he hoped that there was any revision of the tariff, it would be only after careful consideration by the tariff board.

In regard to his own state, he said that his experience in Europe had shown him that California could not hope to compete with the fruit producers there without some political relief.

His Intelligence.

Negley—You seem to have a poor opinion of Polder's intelligence.

Gaymer—You would, too, if you knew he had been looking in the city directory three days for Zeigler's address and had got only as far as the D's.—Chicago News.
